

Quietskies

Over San Juan County

Update: November 2015

GREETINGS:

1. Please continue your efforts to voice your concerns about excessive jet noise to Senators Murray and Cantwell, who apparently are unaware of our concerns despite previous e-mails, letters and phone calls to their offices. Go to <http://www.quietskies.info> and click on "Contact Now" for sample letters.
2. The Navy's efforts to place a microwave war training area over the Olympic Peninsula continue. Peter Goldmark is our ONLY WA State elected official who has stood up and said NO. For one of several articles on this, go to : <http://thedailyworld.com/news/local/dnr-says-not-interested-participating-navy-electronic-warfare-training>

We need to let him know he has wide support for his position. Please take a moment - as soon as possible - and write or email him.

Peter Goldmark
Commissioner of Public Lands

WHY NOW?

Earlier in November, Janet Marx, who works with Citizen's of Ebey's Reserve (COER), asked those concerned about Growler Jet activity to contact Peter Goldmark. She writes: "Yesterday I attended a meeting with a representative of DNR. Remember DNR has refused Navy access for EWR [Electronic Warfare Range] on their property. Evidently Peter Goldmark the DNR Commissioner is under a lot of pressure from the Dept. of Defense to change his mind. It would help if he knew he had support from the local communities. Could you send out the message asking your contacts to let Peter Goldmark know we appreciate his decision and the protection of our homeland?"

On its website, the Citizens of Ebey's Reserve (COER) has written: "Please take a minute to email Peter Goldmark and thank him for his courageous stand to protect our beautiful peninsula from being turned into an Electronic Warfare Range by the Navy."

HERE'S THE ARTICLE POSTED ON THE COER WEBSITE:

Support the DNR's Refusal for Navy Wargames
